The Song of the Cradle.

Bye, bye! Hope rises high:
There's a sweet little cradle hung up in the sky;
A dear little life that is coming to bless;
Two soft chubby hands that will pat and caress;
A pure little soul winging down from above;
A darling to care for, a baby to love.

One of the grandest agencies which enlightened Science has discovered to relieve motherhood from excessive suffering is the "Favorite Prescription" devised by Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. Y.

This wonderful "Prescription" imbues the entire nervous system with natural, healthy vitality; gives elastic vigor to the delicate organism specially concerned in motherhood, and makes the coming of baby entirely free from danger and almost free from pain.

"I wish to state that I have used Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription with very good results," writes Mrs. Katie M. Annis, of Hudson, New Hampshire. "Had been in poor health for over four years and had been twice in the hospital. My husband brought some of your 'Favorite Prescription,' and it has carried me easily through my last two confinements. We are now blessed with two healthy children, and I am sure your medicine has done me more good than all the other treatment I have ever received."

BAD HEADACHES generally arise from bad stomachs. Foul breath, bitter taste, coated tongue, sour eructations or belching of gas, are common symptoms though not all present in every case. To cure, take small doses, only one or two each day, of old Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, the Original Little Liver Pills, first put up by him over 40 years ago. One or two a laxative, three or four cathartic.

HEALTHY PLANTS

Require the Most Careful Attention as Well as Good Soil.

Did you ever see a rosebush which—despite the most beneficent environment of soil—of sunshine—and of atmosphere,—seemed never to achieve a healthy growth.

A ton of manure will not help a plant that has a canker eating out its heart.

You must destroy the cause before you can remove the effect.

You cannot cure Dandruff and Baldness by rubbing on hair lotions, and rubbing in vaseline etc.

You must get to the cause of the trouble—the roots of the hair—which causes it to fall out.

Newbro's Herpicide destroys the germ, and healthy hair is the sure result.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit Mich.

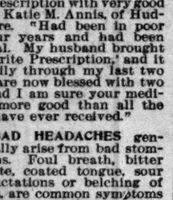
Nasal CATARRH

In all its stages.

Ely's Cream Balm



cleanses, soothes and heals the diseased membrane. It cures catarrh and drives away a cold in the head quickly.

Cream Balm is placed into the nostrils, spreads over the membrane and is absorbed. Relief is immediate and a cure follows. It is not drying—does not produce sneezing. Large Size, 50 cents at Druggists or by mail; Trial Size, 10 cents.

ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren Street, New York.

Sour Stomach

No appetite, loss of strength, nervousness, headache, constipation, bad breath, general debility, sour risings, and catarrh of the stomach are all due to indigestion. Kodol cures indigestion. This new discovery represents the natural juices of digestion as they exist in a healthy stomach, combined with the greatest known tonic and reconstructive properties. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure does not only cure indigestion and dyspepsia, but this famous remedy cures all stomach troubles by cleansing, purifying, sweetening and strengthening the mucous membranes lining the stomach.

THE POLAR WAVE.

Early yesterday morning the mercury registered 9 degrees above zero, in Richmond, being the coldest weather of the winter. The minimum temperature through the day was 24 degrees, with a tendency to rise. In the country districts the cold has been even more severe, and from some sections came reports that the public schools have been forced to close. In New Kent county cold and snow has made conditions so serious for the game that deer have been seen herding with cattle, hunger having forced them to visit the abodes of men, while coveys of partridges are to be found living with the domestic fowls. In Gloucester county Thursday night the mercury went to zero for the first time in its history.

Seventeen degrees below zero was the temperature at Elkins, W. Va., at an early hour yesterday morning, the lowest ever known there.

The general cold wave probably reached its southernmost boundary yesterday and spread a blanket of sleet and snow over the central South.

A fall of sleet ranging from one to three inches is reported from points in Arkansas, Mississippi, Tennessee, Georgia, Alabama, Oklahoma, Indian Territory and parts of Texas, while falls of snow extend beyond the boundaries named. Freezing weather prevails over a wide area of the States mentioned.

In Arkansas the fruit crop has been severely damaged, while in Mississippi and parts of Louisiana truck gardens and cotton suffered. Many head of cattle will be lost in some sections of Texas. The Mississippi river at Memphis is full of ice and navigation is suspended.

The snowfall in Missouri and Kansas averaged four inches, and from one to two inches in Oklahoma and five inches in Arkansas. The coldest temperature reported in Kansas was 12° below zero, at Concordia. It was 16° above zero at Fort Smith.

Memphis reported 7° above zero yesterday. Street car service there is practically suspended and business is at a standstill. Trains are from two to six hours late. The same conditions are reported from points in Mississippi and Arkansas.

Marine traffic in New York harbor and in the westerly end of Long Island Sound was badly hampered yesterday by ice. Only powerful steam craft could force their way through the fields of floating ice composed of floes broken from the ice sheet over the Hudson river and of thick new ice formed last night. If the cold snap continues for a few days it is feared that traffic in the harbor will be tied up.

DISORDER IN POLAND.

Reports from Warsaw, Lodz and other points in Poland tell of bloodshed resulting from the strikes, and the ill-feeling of the working masses against the military.

The workmen in all the sugar factories of Poland, which number 42, are on strike. These factories hitherto have been working day and night to supply the troops in Manchuria.

The employees of the iron works at Sosnovice struck yesterday.

Late reports from Lodz, where there are 25,000 men out, say the disturbances there ended quickly. The military fired one volley, killing two and wounding two, and the rioters immediately fled. The town is now completely quiet. The authorites have taken extraordinary precautions to maintain order.

There is a report from Radogoszez that a mob there killed one officer and two soldiers.

A general strike has begun at Pabianica. Strikes were started in the coal districts of Dombrowa and Sosnovice. It is feared they will have a serious effect on the industrial situation generally, Warsaw, Lodz and other important manufacturing centers being entirely dependent for their coal supply on these districts.

The newspapers of Warsaw reappeared yesterday evening after eight days' suspension of publication. They are subjected to the most severe censorship under the orders of Minister of the Interior Bouligan. Most of the shops reopened yesterday but only a few of the strikers returned to work. Scattered instances of violence were reported in Warsaw. A student of the university was killed early yesterday morning by a soldier, and strikers killed a workman who had been in communication with the military authorities. The workmen of a cutlery factory attempted to resume their employment yesterday, but strikers entered the building and demolished the machinery. A great majority of the strikers apparently are not yet willing to return to work. According to the best information obtainable, the official list of persons killed during the disturbances in Warsaw contains over 3,000 names in addition to many unidentified bodies lying at the receiving vault in the cemetery.

A group of soldiers outside a liquor store Thursday night fired on passers-by without warning, killed a shopkeeper and wounded another man.

About 40,000 men are on strike at Sosnovice. At a meeting of strikers the me forcibly dragged officials belonging to the mangement of various concerns to the place of meeting. All the speakers insisted on the preservation of public order. The men's demands include a minimum wage of 75 cents a day, eight hours to constitute a day's work; various reforms in factory management and old-age pensions. After the meeting 12,000 strikers marched six miles to the Dombrova district in perfect order but everywhere preauading workmen to strike.

Yesterday afternoon strikers went to the railway station of Streshomeschiz, seized and bound the officials, wrecked the station buildings and stopped trains in both directions.

MR. PAGE'S REPLY.

The following is the reply of Mr. Thomas Nelson Page to the letter of Senator Bailey, of Texas, concerning the speech recently made by Dr. Alderman, of the Uninversity of Virginia, in New York.

"I have your letter relating to the newspaper report of the speech recently delivered by Dr. Alderman, president of the University of Virginia, before the Southern Society of New York, and note what you say as to the unfortunate impression created by his reported criticism of the public men of the South.

"I beg to say, in the first place, that the speech in question was delivered, not before a northern audience, though, of course, there were some northern men present as guests on that occasion. What was said there were said, as it were, in the family. In the second place, I would say that while the address contained what I and other devoted southerners who heard it considered perfectly sane and reasonable criticism, not on our public men, as you have heard it, but of ourselves, the whole address was a fine—I might say notable—defense of the South. I was not less amazed than Dr. Alderman to find how a few sentences, picked out because they were critical, and divorced from their context, have been distorted and misinterpreted.

"No one knows better than yourself how a paragraph or utterance, thus seperated from its setting, loses its real value and may be twisted into conveying the opposite from what a speaker really intends. One may give credit for a thousand virtues and but a few faults, yet if the faults be the only thing reported his meaning and his attitude will be wholly reversed. Such, I desire to say, has been the case in this instance. Dr. Alderman, in a brief and critical analysis of our conditions, was pleading for better opportunities to train our coming leaders than our generation has had, and the criticism to which the paragraph you have seen referred was so reasonably expressed and so soundly explained by the conditions which followed our great losses that had you, I think, or any one else, heard the entire address, you would not have failed to assert to it as we who heard it assented, and would have agreed with us that it was a speech notableon many accounts, but on none more so than its tribute to the southern people"

Public is Aroused.

The public is aroused to a knowledge of the curative merits of that great medicinal tonic, Electric Bitters, for sick stomach; liver and kidneys. Mary H. Walters, of 546 St Clair Ave., Columbus, O., writes: "For several months I was given up to die. I had fever and ague, my nerves were wrecked; I could not sleep, and my stomach was so weak, from useless doctors' drugs, that I could not eat. Soon after beginning to take Electric Bitters I obtained relief, and in a short time I was entirely cured." Guaranteed at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store; price 50c.

Tonic to the System.

For liver troubles and constipation there is nothing better than DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little Pills. They do not weaken the stomach. Their action upon the system is mild, pleasant and harmless. Bob Moore, of LaFayette, Ind., says: "No use talking, DeWitt's Little Early Risers do their work. All other pills I have used gripe and make me sick in the stomach and never cured me. Dewitt's Little Early Risers proved to be the long sought relief They are simply perfect." Persons traveling find Little Early Risers the most reliable remedy to carry with them. Sold by all druggists.

Perfect Confidence.

Where there used to be a feeling of uneasiness and worry in the household when a child showed symptoms of croup, there is now perfect confidence. This is owing to the uniform success of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the treatment of that disease. Mrs. M. I. Basford, of Poolesville, Md., in speaking of her experience in the use of that remedy says: "I have a world of confidence in Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for I have used it with perfect success. My child Garland is subject to severe attacks of croup and it always gives him prompt relief." For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

SATURDAY EVENING, FEB. 4, 1905

SINCE the Corporation Commission met in this city some of our citizens have not appeared to be in sympathy with the many others who inaugurated the movement looking toward better traveling facilities between this city and Washington, and some have suggested that it it is impolitic to be always arrayed against railroads. It is also asserted that the city has at times stood in its own light in showing hostility to such corporations. We do not desire to be understood as apologists for any railroad company which fails to perform its duty as a common carrier, nor be classed with another element which looks upon a railroad as a common enemy to the body politic, but purpose to call attention to the fact that railroads have received as many favors in Alexandria as in any other city in the country. Over half a century ago the Orange and Alexandria Railroad was given the use of Wilkes and Union streets throughout their entire length and the company is still enjoying this franchise, while tracks of the Washington-Southern run from one end to the other of Henry and Fayette streets. Payne street south of Duke has been closed by railroad tracks and Henry at its intersection with Wolfe is rapidly approaching a similar condition. The Alexandria, Loudoun and Hampshire Railroad many years ago was given the privilege of extending its tracks south to Cameron street. The history of the electric railway is fresh in the minds of all. It has virtually obtained every franchise it has applied for, and the citizens merely ask in return a satisfactory service between this city and Washington—certainly nothing unreasonable at a time when the ferry has become a thing of the past and when it is found impracticable by many to patronize steam trains. The Corporation Commission has held its sessions and heard complaints, and its verdict is awaited with interest. It is generally believed that its directions will be on the lines of common sense and that better traveling conditions will soon be in evidence.

SINCE the time of the Spanish "war" it has been claimed by the jingoes in this country that the people of Porto Rico were delighted at having the United States relieve them of the "Spanish yoke," but direct information from that island is not in accord with such claims, as will be seen by the following letter from San Juan:

Even the most optimistic and patient Americans here are viewing with apprehension the anti-American spirit which seems to be crazing the house of delegates and which is evident all over the island. The most sensational political incident of the past week was a rabid anti-American speech by Speaker Matienzo Cintron of the House, a leader of the unionist party and who was four years a member of the executive council as an appointee of President McKinley. His speech was filled with contemptible references to the administration and was cheered to the echo by the excited delegates. Delegate Ochoteco declared that "Porto Ricans should ask for their liberty with their heads held up and not grovelling on the ground," and other bitter speeches were made before the passing of the memorial to the United States Congress demanding greater liberties. Delegate Medina, of Mayagues, still stands boldly for the independence of Porto Rico. He says that American rule is more tyrannical than that of Spain and that Porto Rico will never be content until she is free. The local press calls him the Patrick Henry of the house.

WHEN the committee from Philadelphia came to Washington to invite the President to the Union League banquet, which he attended last Monday night, they presented their invitation in due form, and were delighted to get a favorable reply. After the formalities the members of the committee stood around and talked. One of them said pleasantly: "Of course, Mr. President, in addition to the importance of the occasion it will be a very pleasant change for you." The President glared: "Change!" he said, "change! by Godfrey, sir, if you think it will be a pleasure to ride on the cars and make a long speech at a banquet, you have a queer idea of enjoyment. I'd rather go out and take a walk over the hills." And the President's ideas concerning such matters are those entertained by most public men, though the average citizen fails to realize that the preparation and delivery of a speech which is worth hearing, requires considerable time and hard mental work. The speakers and reporters at banquets, as a rule, are the men who don't enjoy themselves.

IT IS AS natural for republicans wherever they go to cheat at elections as it is for ducks to take to water. As stated in the Gazette on Wednesday, the House committee on elections No. 2 on that day gave consideration to a memorial of the independent home rule party of Hawaii, praying for the appointment of a commission to investigate the recent election in that territory. The charge is that the official ballots used were attached to a numbered stub, the use of which is condemned as illegal and unlawful, and that it was done by order of Secretary A. L. C. Atkinson, of Hawaii, for the purpose of identifying and intimidating voters. But, in defense, Secretary Atkinson said that the numbering of the ballots was for the purpose of preventing fraud! This is a clear case of making the worse appear the better reason and is the old cry of the thief to "stop thief."

NOTWITHSTANDING the reports from Santo Domingo that the United States has taken over the management of the customs houses in that country in accordance with the terms of the recent agreement negotiated by U. S. Minister Dawson and Commander Dillingham of the navy, the State Department now announces that the agreement has been rejected by this government. It is stated, however, that a new protocol, which shall provide for its submission to and ratification by the Senate, will be drawn up covering in main the points of the first agreement. But this was an after thought by this administration and but for threats by several Senators to demand an investigation of the whole affair Mr. Roosevelt would have forcibly seized Santo Domingo some time ago.

ACCORDING to the newspapers the people in all sections of the country are learning the fact that the groundhog saw his shadow on Thursday.

From Washington.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 4.

Secretary of War Taft and Col. Edwards, chief of the insular division, were heard today by the House committee on ways and means on the proposed change in the tariff rates on goods going into the Philippines. The proposed bill affects 407 schedules and changes the present tariff, estimated as an 18½ per cent. tariff, to a 20 per cent. tariff. The most important change is in regard to machinery, said Secretary Taft, which is changed from a specific to an ad valorem rate, reducing the tariff so as to encourage the introducton of machinery needed in the development of the industries of the islands. Secretary Taft also advocated the adoption of largely increased duties on opium for three years and thereafter to prohibit its importation altogether. He said that he believed petty officers and men of the navy were smuggling opium into the islands. A German at Shanghai, he said, once quoted Mrs. Taft some prices on brocades. He said that we "could get the brocades much cheaper trough the regular channel, the United States navy." "Which channel did you take?" asked Mr. Grosvenor. "Fortunately we did not have to decide," was Secretary Taft's reply. "The goods were for the goverament."

Next Wednesday, at a joint session of the Senate and House, in the hall of the latter, Theodore Roosevelt will be formally declared to have been elected President of the United States. This announcement will be preceded by the opening and counting of the votes of the electoral college. In anticipation of the interest which Washington always evinces in this ceremonial, arrangements have been made for admission to the galleries by special card only.

It is said here by his friend that it is not wholly improvable that Hon. Harry St. George Tucker will announce his candidacy for the democratic nomination for the governorship. It is believed he is considering the matter and that his mind is not fully made up.

It is believed here that General Rosser will be postmaster at Charlottesville and Captain Rogers will retain his present position as collector of revenue in the Richmond district.

Geo. F. Curtis, claiming to represent a number of bankers, merchants and missionaries of Shanghai, China, applied to U. S. District Attorney Beach a few days ago for a warrant for the arrest of Consul General John Goodnow on charges based on those which he (Curtis) recently filed with the State Department. Mr. Beach today declined to issue the warrant on his own responsibility and referred the matter to the Department of Justice.

President Roosevelt today sent a letter to the Secretary of the Interior setting forth his views respecting the granting of contracts for the education of Indians in denominational schools. Among other things the President says the moneys appropriated for the Indian schools belongs to them, and they have the right to express their desire for the support of certain schools to which they prefer to send their children.

President Roosevelt has accepted the invitation extended by Kaiser Wilhelm of Germany to this nation to send representatives to the international convention on wireless telegraphy to be held at Berlin April 4 next. The President has appointed as such delegates: Brig. Gen. A. W. Greeley, representing the army; Commander F. M. Barbour, retired, and now serving as naval attache at Paris, to represent the navy; Chief Engineer Charles A. McAllister of the revenue cutter service, to represent the Treasury; and John I. Waterbury to represent the Department of Commerce and Labor. This year twelve nations will be represented at the gathering as against eight last year, showing the constantly increasing interets in this subject.

The Hay-Bond reciprocity treaty with Newfoundland was today reported favorably by the Senate committee on foreign relations with amendments to meet the objections of the New England fishing interests, which have been proposed by this country and by Premier Bond. The amendments made by the United States have yet to be submitted to the Newfoundland government. The treaty, it is understood, proposes to admit into the United States, coal, fresh fish, from Newfoundland free of duty, while manufactures from the United States are to be admitted into Newfoundland at reduced rates. An amendment was added providing that the treaty should not go into effect until its provisions have been approved by the Congress of the United States. This is the usual condition attached to reciprocity treaties, and is a concession to the right of the House to originate revenue legislation. This amendment, which was proposed by the democrats of the committee, will probably prevent the treaty from going into effect at this session.

Gen. Fitz Lee has been asked to accept the command of a civic division of the inaugural parade. Gov. Montague, of Virginia, will head the Seventy-first Regiment of Virginia troops in the militia division.

The congressional programme for next week includes more important matters than that for any preceeding week of the session. On Monday in the Senate there will be another session of the court in the impeachment in the Judge Swayne case for the purpose of receiving the reply of the House managers to the answer filed yesterday by the judge's attorneys. This will conclude the preliminaries in the case and the rest of the day will be devoted to the statehood bill, general debate on which will close at evening. Under agreement the question as to whether any new stars are to be added to the United States flag this year will be settled on Tuesday. At 12:30 of that day the Senate will begin the consideration of the amendments offered to the statehood bill. There is some talk that most of the republicans will fall in line and support the bill as it stands for the admission of Oklahoma and Indian Territory as the State of Oklahoma, and Arizona and New Mexico as the State of Arizona. The agreement is that the bill and all amendments shall be voted on before the Senate adjourns Tuesday evening. The Senate, after taking part in the joint ceremony of counting the electoral vote in the House on Wednesday, will occupy itself with appropriation bills that day and Thursday. The actual trial of the Swayne impeachment case will begin on Friday. Daily sessions of the impeachment court will be held thereafter. Because of the press of business it is expected that the Senate will adopt a resolution during the week to meet at 10:30 or 11 o'clock. Late evening sessions will also probably be in order before long. In the House on Monday bills will be passed under suspension of the rules. A most important measure which it is intended to pass in that way is the Mann Panama canal bill, which abolished the Isthmian Canal Commission now headed by Admiral Walker and places the government of the canal zone in the hands of the Poesident. The Esch-Townsend railroad rate bill will be taken up for debate on Tuesday at 11 o'clock and there is little doubt that the measure will pass as introduced. The balance of the week will be devoted to appropriation bills.

As stated in the Gazette of that day, Judge Swayne yesterday made formal response in the Senate to the articles of impeachment. The answer was a formidable document in point of size, and in it the twelve articles of impeachment were each answered at length. In every case the fact charged was admitted, but explained from Judge Swayne's point of view, and, in addition, it was contended that even if the conditions were true as charged, they were not of a character to justify proceedings for impeachment for "high crimes and misdemeanors." After the trial was suspended, the joint statehood bill was taken up, and Senators Stone, Berry, and Morgan spoke in opposition to the measure in its present form.

Change Name of Regiment.

Colonel George Wayne Anderson, commanding the Seventieth regiment infantry, Virginia volunteers, has written requesting the advice of his company and battalion officers regarding the advisability of changing the official name of the regiment from the Seventieth to the First. There are only two regiments in the State, and the idea is that they be known as the First and Second. The present regimental numbers is a continuation of the numbers in vogue directly after the civil war, the regiments in existence at the time of the Spanish-American war being eliminated. Major Stanley W. Martin, commanding the Third battalion of the Seventieth, is opposed to the change, and has so written Colonel Anderson. Major Martin says that numbers of new men have come into the service since the Spanish American war who have grown to love the regiment as it now exists and are working hard to make a record for it. He says that he is satisfied with the regiment as it is, and sees no good reason why the name should be changed. Captain Harry M. Musselman, on the other hand, is inclined to be in favor of the proposed change.—[Danville Register.

RAILROAD LEGISLATION.

The House republicans in caucus yesterday afternoon, after a long and acrimonious debate, voted that they would recommend for passage of the Esch-Townsend bill for regulation of freight rates, which describes the powers of the Interstate Commerce Commission, as well as establishes a court of transportation. This action, while representing the sentiment of a majority, by no means was unanimous, since the entire republican delegation from Pennsylvania, 28 in number, and many members of other delegations, including two from Maryland, opposed action at this time in the shape which was finally adopted, and preferred action along the lines suggested by Representative Sibley, of Pennsylvania, in his speech of Wednesday, which indorsed the plan of the appointment of a joint committee from the Senate and House, which should meet after the adjournment of Congress and perpare a plan for submission to Congress at its next session. The caucus decided to recommend the Esch-Townsend bill for the supervision of railroads by a vote of 107 to 44. Opposition became so bitter that the speaker exerted his utmost authority to save the President's desired legislation.

The caucus decided to vote for a special rule, authorized in a resolution offered by Mr. W. P. Hepburn, chairman of the interstate and foreign commerce committee, providing that the Esch-Townsend railroad rate bill shall be taken up for consideration in the House at 11 o'clock on Tuesday and a vote be taken at 4 o'clock on Wednesday, the minority to be permitted to offer no other amendment than the Davey substitute.

Situation in the East.

Again friction among the higher commanders of the Russian army in Manchuria has developed. It is reported that, as a result of this, General Myloff will succeed General Grippenberg in command of the second army. In military circles at St. Petersburg it is stated that Grippenberg telegraphed to the Czar asking to be relieved of his command because General Kuropatkin failed to support him properly in the recent battle of Heikoutia, or the Hun river. At headquarters of the Japanese army in Manchuria it is officially charged that Russians have been mutilating the Japanese wounded. Marshal Oyama's account of the battle of Heikontai shows that the Japanese won by a night attack. The Russian army has resumed its activity, but has made no further demonstration in force.

Tolstoi's Pronouncement.

London, Feb. 4.—Count Vladimir Shertloff, the literary agent of Count Leo Tolstoi, the famous Russian writer, and exponent of social conditions in the Czar's domains, has given out a summary of a pronouncement which Tolstoi will shortly issue. This pronouncement will deal with lessons drawn from the recent trouble in Russia. The summary is as follows: First—All governments, whether monarchical, constitutional, or republican, are nothing more than organized institutions which being immune from punishment have the power to punish others and to plunder and rob. Second—Neither the Russian workingmen nor the intellectuals are true exponents of the people's real needs. Third—These elementary measures which they demand from the government, like freedom of person, speech and conscience, although essential conditions for a life of culture, do not touch the central problem, which is the nationalization and communism of land. From neither the workingmen nor intellectuals of Russia, or other countries do we hear anything of this crying need of the people. Despite the apparent freedom of so called cultured countries and despite their parliaments and their legislative assemblies, they do not allow this all pressing need to be satisfied. Fourth—There exists in other countries a so called free and independent press, but its freedom is only apparent; for the whole press is controlled by wealthy persons who admit no advancement of the people. We have only to observe the fate of Henry George's nationalization scheme to see the truth of this. Fifth—A general policy lies in the individual morally, and religiously, and when there is a real respect for others, lack of gentleness, hatred and brute force all disappear.

Frightful Railroad Accident.

Utica, N. Y., Feb. 4.—Two killed and a score injured is the result of fearful wreck about two o'clock this morning, on the New York Central Railroad three miles west of this city. The boiler of the engine drawing the Western train No. 30, from Boston and New York, exploded. The locomotive toppled over on the east bound track just as the Buffalo special train, No. 8, approached from the West running at a high speed. The train was derailed. There were seven or eight Pullman cars in the Buffalo special, but the train was not heavily loaded. On leaving the tracks the cars rolled over a slight embankment and all the passengers were hurled from their berths. The survivors give interesting descriptions of their experiences. As stated, the trains were passing each other when the boiler of the engine drawing the westbound train exploded, blowing the eastbound train completely off the track and over the fence alongside. The eastbound train was blown many feet into the air.

Fires.

Pottsville, Pa., Feb. 4.—Hill Cottage, one of the landmarks of this section, and occupied by E. L. Herndon, secretary of the Eastern Steel Company, was completely destroyed by fire last night, which started in a wide, old-fashioned chimney. Mr. Herndon had but recently refurnished the house, throughout, and, with the aid of neighbors, succeeded in saving all the furnishings, although nearly all wearing apparel was lost.

Shamokin, Pa., Feb. 4.—Fire, which started last night in Forrey's stocking factory, consumed the latter as well as a packing house, two double blocks of dwellings, and part of the lumber yard of the Shamokin Manufacturing Company. J., grocer, who was shot to death on Thursday morning while driving with a stranger in a sleigh from Watchung to Warrenville, was positively identified today by Jacob Lynn, proprietor of the Farmers' Hotel, at Plainfield, N. J., as the man who drove away in the sleigh with Williams. Wood seems to be suffering from mental troubles. Williams had $200 in his pockets when he went with Wood, and the money was subsequently found upon Williams' person. The motive for the murder, so far, has not been ascertained.

Conditions in Warsaw.

Warsaw, Feb. 4.—The strikers are taking a most moderate course in conducting the strike and are doing everything possible to prevent outbreak or disorder. They have divided the city of Warsaw into seven zones, each of which is commanded by a member of the strikers committee. The purpose of this is to have a man in authority in the chief centres of the city who has a strong influence over the actions of the workmen. Last night the employes of the gas works here and at Lodz expressed a desire to join the strikers. The strike leaders, however, dissuaded them from doing so, as they feared looting would ensue if there was no illumination during the night.

Explosion in Paint Works.

Wheeling, W. Va., Feb. 4.—The paint works and factory of the Wheeling Corrugating Company blew up today, seriously injuring four or five men. The explosion was heard for half a mile and the force of it shook windows out of scores of houses near the scene. Spontaneous combustion is believed to have been the cause of the explosion. Fire broke out in the ruins and was extinquished with much difficulty, owing to the frozen water mains.

Disorders at Brest.

Mrs. Davis Ill.

New York, Feb. 4.—Mrs. Jefferson Davis, who has been confined to her bed in her apartments in the Hotel Gerard for the past week by illness, denied herself to callers last night, and efforts to secure from her a statement regarding General Miles's utterances explaining his position anent the shacking of Jefferson Davis while a prisoner in Fortress Monroe have been met by a gracious refusal. Through the medium of her maid, Mrs. Davis pleaded ill health as the reason for her objection to discussing the Miles statement at this time.

Grippenburg Disobeyed Orders.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 4.—The correspondent of the Publishers' Press is informed that General Grippenburg, in command of the second Manchurian army, will be recalled. His recall is due primarily to the disastrous outcome of the recent series of engagements to the south of Mukden. General Kuropatkin ordered Grippenburg to retire from Sandepu before the Japanese developed their attack. Grippenburg disobeyed orders and advanced, causing the Russian defeat.

Collision with Freight Train.

Plattsburg, N. Y., Feb. 4.—A passenger train on the Au Sable branch of the Delaware & Hudson Railroad collided with a freight train this morning and eight persons were injured. Owing to the severe cold, the water pipes and water supply of the city were completely tied up and no assistance to the college department could be given.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Feb. 4.—Profit taking was considerably in evidence in the stock market this morning. Traders were also somewhat bearishly disposed for the reason that forecasts of the bank statement were rather unfavorable, and some selling was indulged in for a short time. The anthracite coal stocks, however, were disposed to strengthen; also the Gould southwestern shares. National Lead rose nearly 2 per cent. Special attention is more quiet than of late, but the undertone of confidence is unchanged, and buying orders appear on all concessions.

Mr. Newlands called up his resolution providing for the creation of a commission to report a national incorporation act.

Action on the resolution was deferred, to give consideration to the agricultural appropriation bill.

The bill was laid aside without final action, and Mr. Long (Kansas) took the floor to discuss the statehood bill.

HOUSE.

The House today in committee of the whole gave consideration to the diplomatic and consular appropriation bill.

Mr. Lamar made a speech on railroad rate legislation. He declared that during the past 25 years, the railroads had grossly and outrageously over capitalized and that they were now over-charging the people in order to pay dividends on wind and water stock. He declared for the Hearst bill, saying he could not agree with his democratic colleagues of the commerce committee that the Davey bill, the democratic substitute, was sufficient to correct the evil.

Elopers Lost in Snow.

Lost in the darkness and snow on strange country roads, with the thermometer below zero, Elmer E. Hawkins, of Brooklyn, and Miss Myrtle E. Perkins, of Providence, R. I., had a perilous wedding journey Wednesday night. The couple arrived in Danbury early in the evening on their way to Brewster, N. Y., the Gretna Green of that section, where they were to be married. The last train had gone, and they set out for Brewster, 10 miles away, in a cutter. Before they had gone many miles they lost their way upon an unfrequented mountain road and became stalled in snowdrifts. Wrapping the young woman in the blankets in the sleigh, Hawkins worked for hours to reach shelter. At daybreak yesterday the couple reached the home of a farmer four miles from Brewster more dead than alive. They were later married at Brewster by Rev. S. C. Hearn.

The Old Ladies' Home.

The managers of this modest and unobtrusive institution feel that it has been forgotten or overlooked by our towns people, and that it is only necessary to call attention to the home, for them to receive a speedy and hearty response. At present there are four widows comfortably housed and through the needlework guild supplied with warm underwear, but the winter has been so severe that their means have been drawn upon so largely that donations of money or provisions would be most acceptable, the same to be left with the matron at the home, corner of Fairfax and Cameron streets.

We have received a catalogue of the session of 1904-5 of the Episcopal Theological Seminary of Virginia, situated near this city, which contains much of interest to the many who have the welfare of the Seminary at heart. At present there are 44 students from 17 dioceses—Virginia leading with 11 and Southern Virginia having 9. The Seminary is in a prosperious condition. It has given to the Episcopal Church over 1,000 ministers, 27 of its alumni to the episcopate and more than 50 men to the foreign mission field. In addition to this it has founded all the foreign missions in that church. The endowment fund is but $400,000, which yields an income barely sufficient to meet the expenses of the institution and an effort is being made to increase this fund to enlarge the work of the Seminary.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

The Corporation Commission.

After the close of the Gazette's report yesterday Mr. Duke, the general manager of the Washington-Southern Railway, testified as to the number of steam trains going north and south that stop in Alexandria and pointed out the trains that are usually on time. Maj. Myers had previously taken the stand and said he would give the practical side of the questions involved. He said he had a letter from the general manager of the Pennsylvania Railroad stating that it would be utterly impossible to receive local trains at their station in Washington and that such trains would have to stop south of the Long bridge. Maj. Myers said that he realized the hardships and inconveniences to which the people of Alexandria are now subjected and that it was the duty of his road to help them, even at a loss, but that he could not unload people on a fifteen-foot trestle south of the Potomac, and he was therefore powerless to help. Maj. Myers stated, however, that when the four-track road is completed and the better terminal facilities in Washington are ready for use, he would be glad to put on steam cars as an experiment and run them a sufficient length of in time to determine whether or not they will pay. Mr. Harlow said that he had all the confidence in the world in Major Myers's sincerety and asked that he use his endeavors to secure an interchangeable commutation ticket on all the roads passing through here. Maj. Myers said he would take up the question at once. Judge Crump said that the commission could not require one carrier to carry out the contract of another, and that he did not think it necessary for the commission to take any action at this time. Maj. Myers asked if his road would be in contempt if he failed to accomplish anything. Judge Crump replied in the negative, but asked Maj. Myers to advise the commission of his actions. Mr. Harlow again stated that his side would depend upon Maj. Myers doing all that he could to help the situation.

The commission therefore dismissed the petition of counsel for the City Council and the Commuters' Association to compel the Washington-Southern Railway Company to place steam trains on for the passenger traffic to Washington.

Judge Crump requested Messrs. Boothe and Harlow to send the commissioners typewritten copies of President King's statement and also the expert testimony of Mr. Hazleton, the electrician, who had examined the power house and equipments of the electric road.

Mr. Boothe then thanked the commissioners for their patient and courteous hearing and the commission adjourned.

It is understood that the commission will render a decision and enter its order in the railroad case early next week.

The Weather and River.

The weather was cold again last night, the mercury at 7 o'clock this morning standing at 9°—but one degree higher than yesterday morning. It began to climb slowly as the day advanced, although continued cold weather is presaged by the Weather Bureau.

The ice in the river was rendered firmer by last night's low temperature, and this morning the track made by the Norfolk steamer on her way down last night was frozen several inches thick and the picture was suggestive of a scene in the Arctic regions. The ice in the channel is between six and eight inches in thickness, while on the flats, where cake has piled upon cake, pieces could be cut as thick as the blocks which come here during the summer from the Kennebec. Ice is also piled up in heavy masses at different turns in the river and at the mouths of creeks.

The Norfolk steamer arrived up shortly after one o'clock this afternoon. She reported conditions on the river unchanged.

Three powerful naval tugs, the Triton, Tecumseh and Chootaw, attempted to take a barge laden with material to the powder factory at Indian Head, Md., yesterday. Battling with cakes frozen together to the thickness of three or four feet, they broke several big hawsers in pulling the barge between Washington and Alexandria, where they arrived after being in the river nearly all the forenoon.

Conditions on the upper river are giving apprehension. Hour by hour the ice is getting thicker, and from the Little Falls to the mouth of the river it is one ice field, varying from six to twelve inches in thickness. The danger arises from the probability when the thaw comes that a gorge will be formed at the low bridges which span the Potomac.

The Washington authorities are becoming anxious concerning results from a sudden thaw. It is feared that much damage would be done to the lower part of the city from a flood. The Commissioners of the District of Columbia will, it is said, ask for an appropriation of $10,000 for the employment of tugboats to break up the ice and prevent damage before a thaw occurs.

Owing to the heavy ice in the river and its tributaries the Weems Line steamers will remain off the Baltimore route until the ice conditions improve.

It is stated that Mr. Robert Murphy, of Nomini, will put a large power boat upon the river during the coming season for the purpose of carrying wood and lumber cargoes from river points to this city. The new vessel, which is to carry two or three hundred cords of wood, will be equipped with a twenty-five-horsepower gasoline engine, and will have a speed of about ten miles an hour. This vessel will be the first one of her class in service on the river to be equipped with gasoline power.

A Sad Story.

Prof. Leo Wheat was locked up at the Police Station, Baltimore, yesterday charged with assault. The prisoner is now well advanced in years, his gray hair and whiskers and his bent form are all marks of Father Time. His clothing, too, is the sort he has been accustomed to wearing. He is but a shadow of his former self. The professor was once handsomely groomed and well kept, being organist at one of the largest New York churches. His hymns and songs have netted him large royalties, and to those who understand music his "Cradle Songs" is his masterpiece, and it was the last effort of the once famous composer. At his home in the Shenandoah Valley, where he still claims to reside, many of the famous musicians have been wined and dined. When the professor was brought into the stationhouse yesterday he was charged with assaulting Mr. Daniel Bowling. He was clearly much the worse from the liquor he had imbibed, and Justice Grannan, with his usual discretion, held the case over until the man could regain his proper senses. He told Justice Grannan that he had been to hear Paderewski Wednesday night and that, through the joy of hearing the great musician play and the memories awakened by meeting him, he had looked too much on the wine that was red and did not know what he was doing. Mr. Bowling told the justice yesterday that he didn't wish to prosecute. Late yesterday afternoon, after a good nap, Mr. Wheat seemed refreshed and expressed a desire to play. Everyone felt sorry for him and he was allowed to amuse himself for a short while. The old piano which has stood for years the thumps of novices was turned over to the musician. Under the soft touch of the old man as he fondled the keys they fairly spoke. Mr. Wheat is a thorough artist. He refused to touch a key until he had wiped the dust from from all parts of the piano. "You curry a horse, don't you?" he asked; "then why don't you clean your piano, eh?" His hands are now like those of an oyster shucker, and though his brain was muddled the old fellow turned out music that would have been fit for a queen. Besides being a composer Professor Wheat is a Confederate. He fought in the civil war, but spent the greater portion of his life abroad. He is well-known everywhere, and was once a social hero. His concerts in this country and abroad were always well attended, and he was regarded as a wonderful performer.

Mr. Wheat was sent to Bayview Asylum for one month by Justice Grannan. Mr. Wheat said that after he is released from the institution he will go to Texas, where he has a standing offer of a good position.

Personal.

Miss Louise T. Washington, of this city, was one of the bridesmaids at the wedding of Miss Christine Washington Chew and Mr. Brantz M. Rozel, at Charlestown, W. Va., Thursday evening. The bride is a granddaughter of the late John Augustine Washington, at one time proprietor of Mt. Vernon. Mr. Lawrence Washington, of this city, also attended the wedding.

Mrs. Benj. Fubman has returned from a visit to Washington and Alexandria.—[La Plata Maryland Times.

Rev. Flournoy Menefee, president of Washington College will occupy the pulpit at the Baptist Church tomorrow. Dr. Menefee is a forcible speaker and during his recent supply here made a most favorable impression upon his hearers.

Mrs. Kate W. Barrett yesterday afternoon entertained Miss Jeannette Miriam Goldberg at a luncheon. Miss Goldberg is from Jefferson, Texas, and is the National Secretary of the Jewish Woman's Council.

Rev. J. E. Booker, Superintendent of the Home Mission and Evangelistic Work of the Synod of Virginia, will occupy the pulpit of the Second Presbyterian Church at both services tomorrow.

Among the guests registered at the New Hotel Rammel yesterday were the following: Eugene W. Inglehart, Annapolis, Md.; Angus McD. Crawford, Virginia; Alvin O. Portner and Paul V. Portner, Manassas; T. Foster Slaughter, R. M. Stuart, R. Hayden, E. Gordon, B. Boteler and A. W. Howard, Washington, D. C.; Stewart Hanckel, Charlottesville.

Mr. Kenneth Ogden, who for some time has been tenor singer in St. John's Church choir, Washington, will tomorrow begin his engagement with Christ Church choir in this city.

Miss Mary Ball, of Richmond, is visiting Mrs. S. A. Wallis, on Seminary Hill.

An Alexandria Competitor.

Mr. Milton Dana Morrill, who for the past two years has been a resident of Alexandria, was the author of the design which was placed second in a competition just held for a new office building to be erected by the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Company. The structure is to be 18 stories in height and is to cost one and one half millions dollars. The site is at the corner of Baltimore and Charles streets, Baltimore. Mr. Morrill's plan was placed second among 25 sets of plans which were submitted by the best architectural firms in the country. Mr. Morrill has for the past 2 years held the position of senior architectural Draftsman in the office of the Supervising Architect of the Treasury Department in Washington, from which office he has obtained a temporary lease of absence and expects to sail for Europe on February 25th where, after spending several weeks in travel, he will remain for some months and pursue further the study of his profession in Paris.

Destruction of a Dwelling.

Shortly before eleven o'clock this morning fire was discovered in the roof of the brick dwelling of the Dulany estate on Seminary hill, a short distance northwest of the Golf Club House. The house was occupied by Mr. William Padgett. The fire originated from sparks from a chimney which fell on the roof, and was soon burning fiercely. Neighbors hastened to the scene and worked heroically in removing the furniture, &c., from the house, Mrs. Pettit, an elderly lady, who has for some time been an invalid, had to be carried from the burning building. There was no way to quench the fire, and it literally burned out. Nearly everything combustible in the structure was consumed. A number of people from this city, among them Chief Pettey and several firemen, went to the scene of the conflagration.

Pretty Dance.

The ladies' german which came off last night was a brilliant affair. Judge Barley, the leader, distinguished himself by the skillful and graceful manner in which he managed the seventy-five couples on the floor. The girls were gowned "in bal poudre" style and looked unusually lovely, and the favors which were striking and very ornamental added much to the beauty of the girls' costumes. During the evening refreshments were served. One unusual and noticeable feature was the long line of stags that adorned the walls, and seemed grateful for small favors—from the girls. A great many out of town guests were present. Too much praise cannot be given to the committee who worked so faithfully to make the affair a perfect success. Among the committee were Misses Grace Anderson, Bessie Jones and Rebecca Barrett.

Property Sales.

Capt. R. F. Knox today sold for Commissioners of Sale Smith, Kemper, Boothe and Stuart, a lot of ground on the east side of Alfred street between Duke and Prince, to Chas. J. Sullivan for $905 cash.

Mr. Sam'l H. Lunt sold at the same time and place, for Mrs. Jessie R. Armstrong, executrix, a parcel of land in Fairfax county located on the old Mt. Vernon road, known as lot No. 6, and containing 5.33 acres, to J. K. M. Norton for $20.50 per acre; also for K. Kemper, attorney, a parcel of land adjoining the above and containing 8½ acres to the Fairfax Bethel Baptist Church trustees for $18 per acre cash.

Well Known in Alexandria.

The death of Rev. George Doane, as chaplain in the Army of the Potomac, recalls his frequent visits to the parsonage of St. Mary's church here during the civil war. He had some warm friends in Alexandria, despite international differences, and not unfrequently he officiated at St. Mary's church when his duties as chaplain brought him near Alexandria. He was the son of one Protestant Episcopal bishop and the brother of another. At his funeral in Newark, N. J., the bell of the Presbyterian church was tolled—a mark of respect for the dead prelate by the pastor, Rev. Dr. Frazer.

Sketch of Alexandria.

The Four-track News, a handsomely illustrated monthly magazine, published by George H. Daniels, general passenger agent of the New York Central and Hudson River Railroad Company, contains a sketch of Alexandria, embellished with several correct pictures of historical points in this city. The article is well written and interesting, not only to Alexandrians, but to thousands of strangers who visit the city yearly in going to or returning from Mount Vernon.

The Market.

There were but few country people in market this morning. Buyers were also few and far between. Prices for the slim display of country produce were firm and unchanged. Most of the purchases were made inside the Market House, where the butchers and hucksters had average supplies. There was an ample stock of fresh fish on the benches. A few small shad were offered for sale. They brought 60 cents each.

McCue Awaiting the End.

J. Samuel McCue, who is to be hanged February 10 for wife murder, is under heavy guard day and night, and receives but few visitors. He has not transacted any business of importance for several days, and seems perfectly resigned to his fate. All preparations have been made for the execution of the law's sentence. He said to a visiting friend Thursday that he was prepared to meet his end; that he had done a great deal of good for Charlottesville, and if he had not met with his present trouble would have planned to do more for the people of Charlottesville; that if he had been spared, he had intended to establish two cots at the University hospital, but he had been swept from his feet by the local papers; that the people of Charlottesville would some day regret their action towards him. McCue says that he has made his peace with God and that he would soon be at rest at his Maker's right hand. The condemned man, while a little nervous, seems to be perfectly calm, and expresses confident hopes of the future. His ministers visit him in his cell daily. He rests remarkably well at night, under the circumstances. His appetite seems to flag, though his meals furnished him from the jail are of an inviting character. McCue talks but little to those who visit him. He continues to read his Bible and gives each visitor who leaves his cell a quotation from the Scriptures, and asks that it be read carefully. More over, he invites his friends to meet him in heaven.

SATURDAY EVENING, FEB. 4, 1905.

The Valley Railroad.

It is reported in Staunton that negotiations are pending between the Chesapeake and Ohio and the Baltimore and Ohio railroads for the acquisition by the former of the Valley Railroad, which will thereafter be operated exclusively by the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad. The people of Staunton are said to be unanimously and earnestly opposed to such an arrangement as this, which would deprive them of the benefit of having two railroads, instead of one. Recently there was a movement by the Harrisonburg, Staunton and Lexington boards of trade for the establishment of a through passenger service from Harrisonburg to Lynchburg, but it was not intended by this to interfere with the operation of the Valley Railroad by the Baltimore and Ohio Company, and the people of Staunton say that if the surrender of the Valley road to the Chesapeake and Ohio Company is the only condition upon which the through train service from Harrisonburg to Lynchburg may be obtained, they would very much rather forego that through train service and let matters remain as they are. The freight traffic to and from Staunton over the Valley road is very large, and a most important matter to the Staunton business interests. The Valley road extends from Harrisonburg to Lexington, crossing the Chesapeake and Ohio at Staunton.

Relief Boat Run Aground.

Telephone messages from Crisfield, Deal's Island and Princess Anne Maryland, last night stated that the iceboat Annapolis, Captain Griggs, which, with Chief Marine Clerk Charles A. Thalheimer, Subtreasurer A. Lincoln Dryden and Dr. Joseph S. Hart, left Annapolis early yesterday morning to attempt the rescue of the 14 oystermen imprisoned by the ice on the flats on the west side of Tangier Sound, at a place known as Smith's Island, went aground in Holland bay about 5 o'clock in the afternoon and has been unable to reach the place where the men are or to effect their rescue. The oystermen are still on the island, and during the day were seen to be making frantic signals of distress. It was reported that the Annapolis would be gotten off during the night, but it is extremely doubtful whether she will be able to get near enough to the island to bring off the men or to give them provisions, because of the ice in the river. At Crisfield last night it was said that if the Annapolis was gotten off she would probably find it necessary to return to Crisfield for a volunteer crew and a local pilot.

A Touching Story

is the saving from death of the baby girl of Geo. A. Eyler, Cumberland, Md. He writes: "At the age of 11 months, our little girl was in declining health, with serious Throat Trouble, and two physicians gave her up. We were almost in despair, when we resolved to try Dr King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. The first bottle gave relief; after taking four bottles she was cured, and is now in perfect health." Never fails to relieve and cure a cough or cold. At E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store; 50c and $1.00 guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Unequalled for Constipation.

Mr. A. R. Kane, a prominent druggist of Baxter Springs, Kansas, says: "Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are, in my judgment, the most superior preparation of anything in use today for constipation. They are sure in action and with no tendency to nauseate or gripe. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

There is one rational way to treat nasal catarrh: the medicine is applied direct to the affected membrane. The remedy is Ely's Cream Balm. It restores the inflammed tissue to a healthy state without drying all the life out of them and it gives back the lost senses of taste and smell. The sufferer who is tried of vain experiments should use Cream Balm. Druggists sell it for 50 cts. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren street, New York, will mail it.

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS

AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhœa. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

No More Stomach Troubles.

All stomach trouble is removed by the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It gives the stomach perfect rest by digesting what you eat without the stomach's aid. The food builds up the body, the rest restores the stomach to health. You don't have to diet yourself when taking Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. J. D. Erskine, of Allenville, Mich., says, "I suffered Heartburn and Stomach trouble for some time. My sister-in-law has had the same trouble and was not able to eat for six weeks. She lived entirely on warm water. After taking two bottles of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure she was entirely cured. She now eats heartily and is in good health. I am glad to say Kodol gave me instant relief." Sold by all druggists.
